Case No. 1:20-cr-185-CMH
The Hon. Claude M. Hilton

DEFENDANT’S MEMORANDUM REGARDING GOOD TIME CREDIT

On Friday, November 13, 2020, this Court held a sentencing hearing for Mr. Jaafar and determined that a variance sentence of one year of incarceration was appropriate in this case. Under 18 USC §3624(b), good time credit is only available to “a prisoner who is serving a term of imprisonment of more than 1 year” (emphasis added) and accrues at the rate of up to 54 days a year. Consequently, courts often impose a sentence of a year and a day in order to give a defendant the opportunity to earn such credit. Otherwise, a sentence of 12 months can end up being longer than a sentence of, for example, 13 months with good time credit earned.

This Court has not yet filed a Judgment Order and may have already intended to include this extra day. In an abundance of caution, undersigned counsel mentions it herein and respectfully requests that the Court consider it.

Respectfully submitted,

TARIK JAAFAR
By Counsel
